THURSDAY, JULY 26, 1866.

THE President recently said some pleasant words to a deputation of colored men from New Orleans who called upon him to ascertain his views in reference to the education of their race. He professed great anxiety to have them acquire knowledge, and claimed to be pre-eminently their friend. His talk, as reported, was pleasant, but so general as to amount to nothing. The President fails to consider that not only the laws, but the whole habit of thought and conduct in Southern society are strongly averse to giving the blacks anything like a fair chance. Doubtless they must trust much to time and their own efforts to work an amelioration of their condition. They must develop capacities and aptitudes, and really compete with their white neighbors in prime pursuits before they can expect a full recognition of their rights. But something more than words from the President would be graceful and becoming.

DURING the rebellion, some of the democratic journals in Pennsylvania threatened in so many words, to "inaugurate war in these northern hills and valleys" against what they termed "the Lincoln despotism." Some faint attempts were made to that end in several of the counties, insomuch that considerable military forces were required to suppress the turbulence. A more serious attempt was made in the city of New York. But no body was frightened. No one is frightened by a repetition of these threats. The Government of the United States belongs of right to the body of loyal citizens. The Republicans came by the control in a legal manner, and they mean to carry out their views until voted out. When the ballot-box decides against them, they do not mean to imitate the Democrats and get up a rebellion, but to submit to the will of the majority as becomes good citizens.

THE House in passing the Diplomatic Appropriation Bill, did a good thing. It ordered that no appropriation be made to pay the salary of a Minister to Lisbon, Portugal, so long as MR. HARVEY holds the place. The President properly insists that office-holders shall treat him and his office with respect. Congress takes this way—the only one at its command—to enforce the obligation of office-holders to treat all other departments of the government with respect. Of course, the followers of the President do not like this. They want office-holders to soundly abuse Congress. But we think Congress is not green enough to vote pay to such fellows.

THE fourth section of Mr. Sherman's Loan Bill, prohibiting Banks from holding interest-bearing notes as part of their reserved fund will, if passed, correct an abuse. When the compound interest notes were issued the intention of the Government was that they should enter into circulation. The capitalists, with whom the suggestion originated, had a different intention, which was to make the reserved funds of National Banks draw interest the same as actual loans; and the law, as framed, operated as they hoped. It is time the abuse was corrected.

MR. MONTGOMERY BLAIR, at the Reading Convention, threatened the country with civil war in case Congress should persist in not admitting the southern delegations to seats. This is but a repetition of what he has been declaring in the rotunda and passages of the capitol for the last seven months. Montgomery has a grievance and is miserable. In accordance with a resolution adopted by the last National Republican Convention, he was turned out of President Lincoln's Cabinet. He feels sanguinary, and wants revenge.

LAST year the President "assumed a virtue, though he had it not." He ordered that no assessments should be made on office-holders for political purposes. He assigned lofty reasons, which were not the true reasons, for this course. He simply wanted to embarrass and defeat the Republicans, but did not deem it prudent to say so. This year all the office-holders are called upon for assessments for party purposes, but not in aid of the Republicans. So the hypocrisy of the President, last year, stands confessed.

IF ANY MAN, violent and debased by nature, wishes to take lessons in the use of abusive and opprobious terms of speech, he had best make a study of the leaders wherein most of the Democratic journals rebuke Governor BROWNLOW for calling the President a "dirty dog." Some of those journals evince an incomparable genius for blackguardism, before which the attainments of the Governor in that disgusting art, however considerable in his own estimation, sink into insignificance.

IT MUST be confessed that the Democratic State Committee has made, in the main, an appropriate selection of delegates to the Philadelphia Convention. When the rebel leaders meet them in that vaunted convocation they will recognize most of them as personal friends and as friends of the cause for which they waged a desperate war. The omission of one or two names from the list only detracts from the perfect satisfaction it will give the southern supporters of "My Policy."

IF there is one right of Congress more incontestible than another, it is the right to judge of the eligibility of persons claiming to be members of either of the Houses. Even President JOHNSON is not so far gone as to deny that right. Congress has been exercising this right in a way the democrats do not like, and they threaten a direful retribution. As yet we have found no man frightened by their clamor.

THE orders Gen SHERIDAN has been compelled to issue forbidding the reorganization of confederate military companies, batteries and the like, and the erection of monuments to commemorate the rebellion, may all be fairly taken as illustrations of that temper to which the President's Policy appeals and to which it affords encouragement.

THE Democrats profess to grieve that certain loyal claimants are not admitted to seats in Congress. They may as well spare their sorrow. Loyal claimants from the South profess great satisfaction with the present arrangement. They are the other sort who are discomfited. Any lamentation over them is thrown away.

THE notifications received by hundreds of Union men in New Orleans, that assassination awaits them unless they leave the State, are all evidences that the men concerned in the rebellion are not in a suitable frame of mind to have the fate of Unionists left in their hands.

WM. BENNETT, JR., Secretary.
JOHN B. ELDRIDGE, President.
HARTFORD, July 13, 1866.

To the Patrons of the Connecticut Fire Insurance Company:

The Old Connecticut takes pleasure in announcing to its patrons that the disastrous conflagration in Portland, on the Fourth of July, has in no way affected its soundness or prosperity. It has just declared and paid its 28th dividend, and the money is in bank to pay every dollar of its losses, most of which have been adjusted and paid. The claims already adjusted reduce its whole loss to $17,000, which it is expected will be still further reduced by adjustments now being made. After paying every dollar of its losses it has a cash surplus of $60,000: can reinsure every risk, and show a larger per centage of surplus than, with very few exceptions, any company now doing business.

To the Martyrs of Liver Complaint.

Among the wonderful medical properties which have rendered HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS pre-eminent among the health-restoring preparations of the age, its anti-bilious virtues are not the least remarkable. No words can do justice to its marvelous effect upon the diseased liver. Perhaps the simple words of a convalescent sufferer, who describes it as "going right to the spot," tell the story as clearly as may be. It does go right to the spot. It operates directly upon the disordered organ, and whether unduly active or in a state of paralysis, restores it to a condition of health. The Sickness at the Stomach, pain between the Shoulders and in the Right Side, Yellow Suffusion of the Skin, Costiveness, Drowsiness and Languor, Dimness of Sight, Colic, Palpitation of the Heart, Dry Cough, Low Fever, and other symptoms which indicate the various phases of Acute and Chronic Liver Complaint, are one and all promptly relieved, and finally removed, by the action of this famous preparation, which is at once the best of correctives, the gentlest and most genial of aperients, an infallible regulator, and a powerful restorative. Persons of a bilious habit, who use the Bitters as a protective medicine, will never suffer the pains and penalties of Liver disease or Bilious Remittent Fever.

Hostetter's Bitters

Are sold wholesale and retail at very low rates at Fleming's Drug and Patent Medicine Depot, No. 84 Market street, corner of the Diamond and Market, near Fourth street.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

Disturbances on the Eastern Shore of Virginia Between the Whites and Blacks—Cause of the Trouble—Negroes Hunted Down and Robbed—Civil Authorities Overawed by Armed Whites.

FORTRESS MONROE, July 23.—The United States steam tug Geneva returned yesterday morning from the scene of the disturbance on the eastern shore of Virginia, near Drummonstown, between the inhabitants and the negroes. It appears the trouble originated in a band of white men hunting down some negroes for the purpose of searching for one named Couch, who, a few days previous, had attempted to cut the throat of a white man. The negroes were robbed of their arms and money, when they made complaint to the civil authorities, who issued warrants for the arrest of eleven of the white men.

The 14th instant was set apart for the hearing of the case at a village named Woodstock. On that day about one hundred well armed white men assembled, swearing they would kill every negro who attempted to testify, and threatened the magistrate, Mr. Dix, with violence if the proceedings were continued. The officer endorsed upon the warrants of arrest the impossibility of conducting the trial against such circumstances, and informed Major French, agent of the Freedmen's Bureau, of his action. The latter officer advised the negroes to quietly return to their homes, and while they were doing so, they were again assaulted and pursued by the armed whites until they reached places of safety. Upon the arrival of the troops the white men dispersed in every direction, and not one of them could be found after a most rigid search.

FROM NEW YORK.

Coal Sold at Auction—Cholera Cases and Deaths—Rates of Fire Insurance not Increased by the Fire Underwriters—Seizure of a Counterfeiter and Counterfeiting Material—Distillery Frauds Settled.

NEW YORK, July 25.—Thirty thousand tons of coal were sold at auction to-day, by Delaware, Lackawana and Western Railroad Company. The prices were: lump, $6,37½; steamer, $6,50@6,60; grate, $6,62½@6,75; egg, $6,75@6,75; stove, $7,20@7,30; chestnut, $5,00@5,55; weight, 2,240 lbs; delivered at Elizabeth.

Out of twelve cases of cholera reported today, there were three deaths in this city. In Brooklyn eight cases were reported, but no deaths.

It has been erroneously stated that the recent convention of Fire Underwriters here had advanced the rates of insurance, ten per cent. No action whatever was taken by the convention on that subject.

John Brim and about a hundred thousand dollars worth of counterfeiting presses and other material, were seized to-day at 43 Maiden Lane, by revenue officers. Brim was taken to jail.

The distillery frauds have been settled by the proprietors paying their fines and duties.

Nothing further has transpired concerning the negotiations between Napoleon and the contending powers.

Several French papers have received Government warning for publishing false news.

A sanguinary conflict took place on the 14th, between the Prussians and Federals near Aschaffenburg. The former were entirely successful. The town was in flames and the Federals were retreating. The Prussians were marching on Frankfort, which town had been evacuated by the Federal troops, and the Diet had been removed to Augustenburg, where foreign representatives were expected to assemble. The headquarters of the Prussian army under the King have been advanced to Brunne.

Iglau was reported to be in possession of the Prussians.

Cialdini had occupied Padua and Vicenegna, towns on the line of railroad to Vienna.

The Austrians in Venetia, except those in Venice, thus had not railroad communication with Vienna, so that unless Cialdini be dislodged, the Austrians cannot render aid in the impending battle with the Prussians.

The Times of the 16th says: Whatever force the Austrian Government may have succeeded in gathering round Vienna, it is still doubtful whether it will itself be equal to the task of withstanding the victorious Prussians, who, according to all calculations, should assemble before Vienna to-morrow or the day after. If anything was needed to render the Austrian position hopeless, it was the tidings of the irreparable disaster at Aschaffenburg, which must have reached Vienna.

Pressed by a deputation from the Viennese Municipality, enquiring the Emperor's pleasure in regard to the defences of Vienna, the Emperor at once removed the people's apprehensions by answering that Vienna would be treated as an open city, and added that he would limit the operations to a defence of the line of the Danube, which might bring a Prussian attack on Floredoff, a village two or three miles from the gates of Vienna, where the Austrians have an entrenched camp as a tete-du-pont. Should the Prussians, however, resolve to attack Vienna, they would certainly attempt to cross the river at several points, and in case of success, the open city would unavoidably fall into their hands.

The state of discouragement into which the Austrian army has been thrown by their repeated losses in Bohemia, the Times believes, will deter the Emperor from a final encounter so close to the capital, and trusts that before the Prussians shall be ready for the onset, the interview between the two monarchs will take place, which might have been more opportunely held on the morning of the disaster at Konniggratz.

In diplomatic circles at St. Petersburg it was declared that Russia has no present intention of abandoning its policy of neutrality, and that only in case of active intervention on the part of any foreign power in the German conflict would she make known her declarations and take an attitude corresponding with her interests.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

Report of Committee Favoring Repeal of Neutrality Laws—Payment Claimed for Property Destroyed by Privateers—War Preferable to a Sacrifice of Our Rights—England Accused of Countenancing the Rebellion—The Fenian Invasion—Reparation Owed to Ireland.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—The report of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, submitted to the House to-day by General Banks, favors the repeal of the neutrality laws and enactment of others in conformity with the law of nations and practice of other powers towards ourselves. It claims payment from Britain for property destroyed by privateers fitted out from British ports, and says:

While we prefer peace to war, and find our advantage in maintaining peace as against war, it is no longer from necessity. If we are compelled to choose between the sacrifice of our rights and an appeal to the arbitration of war, there can be no doubt about the decision. We can no longer stand bail for the peace of the world. We have stood guard for other nations long enough.

It accuses England of countenancing the rebellion, and speaks of the suppression of the Fenian invasion of Canada, as better treatment than England had a right to expect.

It alludes to Irishmen as a race which has suffered for centuries inexcusable and ineffable wrongs, and asserts that the American people believe that England owes reparation to Ireland. The intervention of our Government in the Fenian campaign against Canada is therefore proof of its fidelity to obligations supposed to be due to other nations and ought to satisfy the world that we have neither interest nor desire to disturb the peace of the world. The committee report resolutions to carry into effect their idea.

MISSISSIPPI.

State Convention—Resolutions Adopted Endorsing "My Policy" and Accepting Invitation to Send Delegates to Philadelphia Convention.

JACKSON, MISS., July 25.—The Convention met and adjourned. Thirty-two counties are very numerously represented. The officers were Judge John Watts, President; Giles N. Hillyer, Amos K. Johnston and J. A. Berford, Vice Presidents; J. S. Rowes and M. S. Ward, Secretaries. The following resolution was passed:

Resolved, That this Convention approves the restoration policy of President Johnson, as opposed to the radical policy of Congress, and having been invited by a large number of distinguished fellow-citizens from the northern and western States of the Union to unite in a National Convention to be held at Philadelphia August 14th, accepts that invitation, and will proceed to elect four Senatorial delegates and two from each Congressional district, to represent the State of Mississippi in said proposed Philadelphia Convention.

No other resolutions were passed. There was no speaking.

The delegates at large are Giles M. Hillyer, William Yerger, Henry Dockeray, F. B. Pegues; Second District, J. S. Bailey, D. G. H. Sykes; Third District, A. Murdoch, J. A. Bedford; Fourth District, Gen. Nanthaniel Harris, A. G. Mayers; Fifth District, F. Simrall, Hiram Cassiday.

Maryland Conservative Union Convention.

BALTIMORE, July 25.—The Conservative Union State Convention of the friends of President Johnson's policy assembled here at noon to-day. Postmaster Purnell called the Convention to order and denounced the radicals and strenuously endorsed the policy of the Convention. Mr. Blair nominated Mr. J. M. Frazier as President of the Convention, which was confirmed. A committee on resolutions was then appointed, consisting of Mr. Blair, Ex-Congressmen Cresfield, Evans and others.

Adjournment of Tennessee Legislature.

NASHVILLE, July 25.—The Tennessee Legislature adjourned till the first Monday in November.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

Senator From Kansas and Senator and Representatives from Tennessee Sworn In—Joint Resolution Adopted to Adjourn on Saturday at Noon.

WASHINGTON, July 25, 1866.

SENATE.

Mr. E. G. Ross was sworn in as Senator from Kansas, vice Lane deceased.

Mr. Joseph Fowler, Senator elect from Tennessee for the term ending March 4th, 1871, had his credentials presented by Mr. Sherman and took the oath of office.

Mr. Fessenden called up the resolution for the adjournment, and moved to fix Friday the 27th as the day.

Mr. Sumner asked Mr. Poland if he intended to abandon the bankrupt bill for this session? If not, we cannot adjourn before Monday.

Mr. Poland said he regarded the late vote on the bankrupt bill as deciding its fate for this session.

Mr. Sumner moved to amend the motion of Mr. Fessenden, by fixing Monday the 30th as the day for adjournment.

The resolution was, after debate, altered to fix the date on Saturday at noon, and so passed.

Mr. Wade hoped that Congress would not adjourn without admitting Nebraska and Colorado. His own opinion was that Congress ought not to adjourn at all, and that was the opinion of the majority in the Senate two months ago. There was an apprehension throughout the country that something would take place detrimental to the interests of the country, if Congress adjourned. It would be different if all the departments of the Government were harmonious, but it was evident that when Congress adjourned, the Government would pass into hands hostile to the best interests of the country.

The question being taken on Mr. Sumner's motion to substitute the 30th for the 27th, it was disagreed to by yeas, 15; nays, 25.

Mr. Fessenden moved to amend his motion by fixing a day for adjournment at Saturday, the 28th, at noon. The amendment was agreed to, and the resolution as amended passed by yeas, 29; nays, 13.

Mr. Trumbull, from the Judiciary Committee, reported a bill in relation to habeas corpus and said he did not wish immediate consideration.

Mr. Buckalew submitted a resolution instructing the Committee on Military Affairs to report a bill for the bounties of soldiers of the late war who volunteered in 1861 and 1862. Objection was made and the resolution goes over.

Mr. Wade asked to call up the bill for the admission of Nebraska.

Pending discussion on this motion, the morning hour expired and the civil appropriation bill was taken up.

Mr. Howard offered an amendment appropriating a sufficient sum of money to pay to the First Michigan Cavalry, mustered out of service in Utah. The cost of transportation home was paid at the time by the men themselves.

Mr. Conness said that the case mentioned by Mr. Howard was not the only one of the kind that called for relief. Several California regiments had been mustered out far from home and had to return at their own expense. He hoped they would all be embraced in one bill.

Mr. Steward said he knew of several cases equally deserving with that of the First Michigan. He hoped Mr. Howard's amendment would be amended so as to include all regiments mustered out where they did not reside.

Mr. Nesmith said the Michigan case was the only one submitted to the Military Committee. The appropriation, he said, was limited to $225 to each man.

Mr. Sherman demanded the yeas and nays on the amendment of Mr. Howard, and the amendment was adopted—yeas 22, nays 16.

Mr. Conness offered an amendment appropriating forty thousand dollars to provide for the survey of the Isthmus of Darien, under the direction of the War Department, for the construction a ship canal. Agreed to.

Mr. Ramsey offered an amendment appropriating six thousand dollars for a light house at Grand Portage, Michigan.

Pending the discussion on the above, Mr. Grimes moved that the Senate at half past four take a recess until half past seven, and it was so ordered.

On motion of Mr. Wilson the army bill from the House was taken up. The Senate agreed to a Committee of Conference, called for by the House.

On motion of Mr. Fessenden the Senate insisted on its amendments to the tariff bill, and agreed to a Committee of Conference, called for by the House.

Messrs. Fessenden, Henderson and Howard were appointed as said Committee.

The Senate at 4:15 P. M. went into executive session, and soon after took a recess until 7:30 P. M.

Evening Session.—Mr. Morgan reported from the Committee on Commerce, the bill recently passed by the House to provide for and regulate the weighing of exports, which was passed without amendment, and goes to the President.

The consideration of the civil appropriation bill was resumed.

Mr. Wade offered as an amendment a proposition increasing and fixing the salaries of the officers, clerks and messengers of the Senate.

Mr. Johnson asked how much this would increase the usual appropriation for this purpose?

Mr. Wade said he did not know. He had not summed it up. It increased salaries about twenty-five per cent. If Senators could increase their own salaries, they ought not to hesitate to increase those of their employees twenty-five per cent. The increase was not unreasonable.

Mr. Henderson offered as a substitute for Mr. Wade's amendment, a bill reported from the Committee on Contingent Expenses increasing the salaries of members of both Houses of Congress.

A lengthy debate took place on the relative merits of these two measures.

Mr. Grimes favored the proposition of Mr. Henderson because it put the purchasing for the Senate into the hands of a purchasing agent. The purchasing was now done by the Sergeant-at-arms without any authority of law, who had no such right, whose duty it was to act at the right of the chair as executive officer of the Senate. He (Mr Grimes) had never seen the present Sergeant-at-arms there, but that had been the post of his predecessors for seventy years.

Mr. Trumbull replied with warmth, that this attack was unwarranted and unjustifiable. He knew the Sergeant-at-arms as a faithful officer, as well qualified for his office as any man who had ever held it. He (Mr Trumbull) would like to know what pet or favorite Mr. Grimes had whom he wished to have appointed the purchase officer of the Senate.

Mr. Grimes said that he meant no assault on the Sergeant-at-Arms. What he had said was, that the place for him during the session of the Senate, was at the right of the President's chair, and not on Pennsylvania avenue or Wall street making purchases. He (Grimes) had heard complaints from several Senators on this ground.

Mr. Trumbull—I never heard any such complaint.

Mr. Grimes—No, I suppose not. The Sergeant-at-arms was brought here as the friend of the Senator of Illinois, (Trumbull) and when Senators have complaints to make, they would not be apt to go home to make them. I should not have referred to Mr. Brown at all but from efforts of the Senator from Illinois and his friends, to confer upon him the exclusive power to make all the purchases for the Senate.

Mr. Yates said that he felt it his duty to say a few words to repel the imputations cast upon the character of the Sergeant-at-Arms by Mr. Grimes. He had known that officer for twenty-five years, and knew him to be a man of spotless integrity in public and private life.

After further discussion, Mr. Henderson's proposition was defeated.

A vote was taken on Mr. Wade's proposition, and it was disagreed to by a vote of 19 yeas to 20 nays.

At one o'clock this morning (the 26th), the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

Mr. Rice, of Massachusetts, from the Committee on Naval Affairs, reported back the House bill to prevent officers of the navy from being deprived of their regular promotion on account of wounds received in battle, with amendments. The amendments were agreed to and the bill passed.

Mr. Kasson introduced a bill to incorporate a National Farm School for orphans and dependent children of colored soldiers and for other colored children, which was read three times and passed.

Edmund Cooper, one of the members from the State of Tennessee, appeared and was qualified by taking the oath of office prescribed by law.

Mr. Boutwell, from the Judiciary Committee, reported a bill giving to Commissioners appointed by Circuit Courts the same powers in regard to seamen avoiding their contracts that are given to Justices of the Peace by the seventh section of the act of July 20th, 1790, for the government and regulation of seamen in the merchant service, which was read three times and passed.

Mr. Woodbridge made several reports, which were laid on the table, among them the House bill to incorporate the National Union Telegraph Association.

John W. Liftwick, one of the members elect from Tennessee, appeared and was qualified by taking the oath of office prescribed by law.

Mr. Williams, from the Judiciary Committee, reported a bill to regulate the appointment of clerks and commissioners of bail, prohibiting the appointment by United States of judges of relations by blood or marriage. After some discussion the bill was passed.

Mr. Lawrence, of Ohio, from the same committee, reported a bill to define and punish certain crimes. The bill makes it a crime to rob any person of property belonging to the United States, or to place any impediment on the track of railroads carrying United States mails.

After some discussion the bill was passed.

Mr. Williams, from the same committee, reported a bill to restore the possession of lands confiscated by authority of the States lately in rebellion. It makes it the duty of the President or commanding officer of military forces stationed within a particular State or district, on complaint of any person dispossessed of property for adherence to the cause of the Union, to restore him to possession of the same.

Mr. Trimble denounced the bill as giving military officers authority to decide legal questions as to title to real estate. He moved to lay the bill on the table. The motion was rejected by yeas, 22; nays, 81. The bill was then passed with a division.

Mr. Lawrence, of Ohio, from the same Committee, reported back with amendments, the bill to amend the act of September 24th, 1789, to establish judicial courts. It gives the several courts of the United States, and judges of such courts, in addition to the authority now conferred by law, power to grant writs of habeas corpus in all cases where any person may be restrained of his or her liberty, in violation of the Constitution or of any treaty or law of the United States. The act is not to apply to the case of any person who is, or may be, held in custody of the military authorities of the United States charged with any military offence, or with having aided or abetted the rebellion against the Government of the United States prior to the passage of the act. After discussion the amendments were agreed to, and the bill passed.

The House then resumed the consideration of the bill reported from the Committee on Banking and Currency, to amend the national currency act. The bill and several amendments proposed were discussed at considerable length by Messrs. Morrill, Lynch, Hotchkiss, Conkling, Randall, of Pennsylvania, Stevens, Rollins, Price, Hubbard, of West Virginia, Kelley, and others. The bill was postponed by a vote of 54 yeas to 47 nays.

Mr. Banks, from the Committee on Foreign Affairs, reported a bill in reference to the neutrality laws, which was read twice and ordered to be printed and deferred until to-morrow.

Mr. Raymond, on behalf of Mr. Patterson, of New Hampshire, and himself, submitted a minority report.

On motion of Mr. Schenck, a Committee of Conference was appointed on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses, on the bill to reorganize the army, and Messrs. Schenck, Paine and Ancona were appointed conferees on the part of the House.

The Speaker presented a letter from the Sergeant-at-arms submitting the question as to the time to which the compensation of the Tennessee members shall date back, and stated that as it embodied a new question, he would refer it to the House.

Mr. Stevens remarked that he did not think there was any difficulty about it. Those gentlemen were members from the day of their election, as it finally turned out. (Laughter.) He moved that they be paid mileage and compensation from the 4th of March, 1865, the beginning of the present Congress.

Dr. Dawes expressed the same opinion, and said there was a precedent for it in the case of the Louisiana members in the 37th Congress.

Mr. Loan moved to refer the question to the Committee on Elections. Negatived.

Mr. Stevens' motion was then agreed to.

The Speaker appointed Messrs. Garfield, Hogan and Moorhead a Conference Committee on the amendatory tariff bill.

On motion of Mr. Delano, the Senate amendment to the House concurrent resolution fixing Saturday, the 28th, at 12 o'clock, as the time for adjournment, was concurred in by 68 to 55.

Mr. Garfield, from the Committee of Ways and Means, reported back, with amendments, the Senate bill for the payment of the public debt.

Mr. Garfield moved to suspend rules, so as to allow its final consideration in the House.

The rules were not suspended, and the bill and amendments were thereupon referred to the Committee on the State of the Union.

The Committee of Ways and Means proposes to amend the second section by striking out the limitation of four months within which, before the maturity of 7-30's, holders must make their election as to whether they will convert them into 5-20's, leaving them to make that election at or before maturity, and authorizing the Secretary to pay those as to which no notice shall be given in lawful money or in 5-20 bonds as he may elect, provided that hereafter no commissions shall be allowed or paid by the Secretary of the Treasury to any party for the purchase, sale, or exchange of bonds or treasury notes.

Mr. Garfield then moved to go into Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union. The motion was agreed to, and the House thereupon went into Committee of the Whole on the state of Union, Mr. Rollins in the chair.

There were nine bills on the calendar having precedence, and it was necessary to have each of them passed over. Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, and others who were opposed to the Senate bill embarrassed their motions by calling for votes by tellers, and it was very difficult to get a quorum to vote. Much time was consumed in the process, including the time occupied in one call of the roll.

The first four bills on the calendar were laid aside.

The next was the bill, reported by Mr. Stevens, to enable the States lately in rebellion to regain their privileges in the Union.

Mr. Stevens rose and said he had a substitute to offer for the bill, and he would ask the Committee of the Whole to report it to the House and have it considered to-morrow.

The Clerk was in the act of reading the bill, when the hour of 4:30 having arrived, the Committee rose and the House took a recess till 7:30 P. M.

Evening Session.—The House proceeded to the business on the speaker's table.

The Senate bill to incorporate the Washington Land and Building Company of the District of Columbia was taken up. The bill gave rise to considerable debate, Mr. Conkling denouncing the system of giving charters to building companies which had proved to be such swindles in New York and other States.

Mr. Mercer defended the bill and advocated its passage.

On motion of Mr. Paine the bill was laid on the table.

Mr. Broomall, from the special Committee appointed to investigate the Memphis riots in the absence of Mr. Washburne on account of illness, presented the report and a voluminous mass of testimony, and moved that the report and testimony be printed.

Mr. Shanklin presented the views of the minority.

Mr. Le Blond protested against printing that great mass of testimony. He did not believe that any member would ever read it. The whole thing was of a local character, and its regulation belonged to the State of Tennessee. Congress should not undertake to regulate such matters.

Mr. Scofield remarked that Congress had been regulating them for the last five years.

Mr. Le Blond thought there was as much regulation required in the North as in the south.

Mr. Johnson followed in the same course of argument. The subject of investigation was only a riot, and the Committee, he understood, had arrived at that conclusion. A riot in Memphis was no more than a riot in New York or Philadelphia. The object of printing the testimony was for partizan effect. The investigation had been conceived in that spirit and had been so treated by the public press of the country.

Mr. Broomall said he did not wonder at the opposition of the gentlemen on the other side. They did not desire to have the testimony printed.

Mr. Le Blond called for the yeas and nays. The vote was taken, and the printing was ordered by a vote of 86 yeas against 23 nays.

The House resumed the consideration of the business on the Speaker's table.

A number of District of Columbia bills were acted upon or referred.

The Senate bill granting lands to aid in the construction of a railroad and telegraph line from the States of Missouri and Arkansas to the Pacific coast came up.

Before the reading of the bill was concluded the House, at ten o'clock, adjourned.

LATER FROM WASHINGTON.

A. W. Randall Confirmed as Postmaster General—Nominations of Lieutenant General Grant as General of the United States Army, and Vice-Admiral Farragut as Admiral of the Navy, Confirmed Without the Usual Formality of References—Other Appointments.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—A. W. Randall was this evening confirmed by the Senate as Postmaster-General, and Joseph Wilson as Commissioner of the General Land Office.

The nomination of Lieutenant General Grant to be General of the Army of the United States, and Vice-Admiral Farragut to be Admiral of the Navy, was taken up by the Senate, and without the usual formality of reference, was unanimously confirmed.

The Senate has confirmed the following among other nominations: Albert G. Edwards, to be Assistant Treasurer at St. Louis; W. B. Mitchell, Receiver of Public Moneys at St. Cloud, Minnesota; Henry C. Wait, Register of Land Office at St. Cloud, Minnesota; A. H. Bulis, Register at Winnebago city.

The rumor that Mr. Arnold, the Sixth Auditor of the Treasury, intends resigning, probably grew out of the fact that he will be absent from Washington some weeks this summer.

The First National Bank of Wilmington, N. C., was organized yesterday, with a capital of one hundred thousand dollars. This is the fourth National Bank organized in North Carolina. The application was placed on file ten months ago.

A schedule of articles exempt from the Internal Revenue tax from and after July 1st, 1866, the date of passage of the new law, is being prepared, and will soon be published.

The National Saengerfest—Second Day—Contest for Prizes.

LOUISVILLE, July 25.—Various excursions and pic-nics took place and rehearsals throughout the day. In the evening, the societies competed for the prizes, which will be announced on Friday.

The Saengeround Hall was crammed to its utmost capacity, notwithstanding the very oppressive heat. The rivalry between the contending societies is enthusiastically received and warmly applauded. The exercises are to conclude with a torch light procession.

Cholera in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, July 25.—Six cases, three of which were fatal, were reported to the board of health to-day up to 2 o'clock this afternoon.

—In Hungary, during a recent bear hunt, a very savage she bear had just been mortally wounded, when all at once a young girl, about twelve years of age, rushed out of the thicket and threw herself on the expiring beast, giving utterance to most lamentable cries. With some difficulty this young savage was captured by means of cords and nets. It has been discovered that a peasant woman, some twelve years ago, lost her child, a little girl, on the confines of the forest, and has never since been able to obtain any tidings of her. A certain Countess Erdoelt has taken the little girl under her care, and is obliged to feed her with roots, honey and raw meat—the usual food of bears.

—Among the "Garibaldina" there are four or five vivandieres, of whom a correspondent writes: "Their dress is very pretty; it consists of a pair of baggy trousers, a short green skirt, and one of the red camicie fastened round the middle with a belt; also, a jaunty little red cap with a long tassel, the hair being knitted up quite short. A very pretty girl one was; but I should not advise either volunteer or Tyrolese to take liberties with her, at all events as long as she carries that sharp, bright stiletto in her girdle."

—Henry A. Wise said in his pious lecture at Norfolk that "a negro is one with a black skin but a good blood-red heart, while a nigger may have a skin as white as snow, but his heart is as black as hell."

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Additional Local Matters on Third Page.

The Knife at a Pic-nic—Affray at McFarland's Grove—Injured Party in a Critical State—Escape of the Offender.

A cutting affray of a serious nature took place yesterday afternoon at McFarland's Grove, on the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, about three miles east of this city, which will probably be attended with fatal result. The particulars, as far as we learned, are as follows: Two young men, named Patrick M'Fadden and Thomas Burke, were attending a pic-nic given at the above Grove, yesterday, for the benefit of a disabled soldier. About four o'clock Burke got into a difficulty with some person, whose name we could not ascertain, and after several blows had been struck, M'Fadden interfered and succeeded in separating the combatants. A friend of the unknown party, named Thomas Scanlon, not satisfied with the termination of the quarrel, sought out Burke a few minutes after, and challenged him to fight, saying that the other party was not a match for him (Burke). After some preliminary words Scanlon struck Burke and the quarrel was renewed. M'Fadden, seeing his friend again fighting, rushed into the crowd and endeavored to get him away. His efforts were unavailing for a time, but at length Scanlon broke from the crowd and ran down the hill in the direction of the railroad track. McFadden then announced to those standing by that the fight was all over, and turned to go to some ladies who stood a short distance off, but ere he could reach them, he fell to the ground exclaiming, "He cut me." He was immediately taken up, when it was discovered that he was bleeding profusely from a wound in the right breast. As soon as a vehicle could be obtained he was brought to the city and taken to his residence, No. 143 Webster street, where Drs. Gallaher and Shaw were summoned to his assistance. On making an examination of the wound it was found that the knife had entered the right breast about one inch above the nipple, and penetrated in a downward direction some four inches, causing a wound that probably will prove fatal. We called upon the wounded man at a late hour last night, but could learn nothing additional from him, as he had been speechless for several hours. As soon as information of the occurrence reached the city a posse of police was dispatched in quest of Scanlon—who resides within a short distance of the spot where the cutting took place—but up to the time of the present writing, he has not been arrested. M'Fadden is a young married man, between twenty-three and twenty-four years of age, and is a tobaconist by occupation. He has hitherto borne an excellent character for peace and good behavior. There seems to be no doubt in the minds of all who witnessed the affair, that Scanlon did the stabbing.

Meeting of the Friends of Hamill—Arrangements for His Welcome Home.

The fact of "Jimmy" Hamill being defeated in the recent international sculling match does not seem to have the effect of injuring him in the estimation of his friends and backers. Even those—and they are not a few in number—who went their pile on "Jimmy," and lost, still cling to him with the same tenacity they did in the days of his many triumphs. In order that he might receive a cordial welcome on his return home, a large meeting of his friends and sympathizers convened in Duquesne Hall last evening to make the necessary preparations. An organization was effected by calling Mr. Henry Freyvogel to the chair, and appointing Mr. George W. Leonard Secretary.

On motion of Mr. Weldon, a Committee was appointed, consisting of Messrs. Cosgrave, Weldon and Kelly, to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting. The Committee retired and after a brief absence reported the following preamble and resolutions which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, Under an impulse of National pride our champion challenged "England's Own," Mr. Harry Kelley, to contest for the supremacy of one or other as the "champion of the world" in aquatic sports, in which contest our representative was fairly beaten, we desire, at this meeting, to express, no less our appreciation of the skill and excellence of his trans-Atlantic competitor, than to applaud and approve the genuine courage and enterprise of our townsman and friend, who undertook such an arduous task as to enter the contest: And whereas, The evidence we have received of the entertainment of our representative "across the waters" by the Tynesiders, and the citizens of New Castle particularly, and of the hospitalities extended to him before and after the defeat, will ever be held in grateful remembrance; therefore,

Resolved, That upon the arrival of James Hamill and suite, we will extend to them our most hearty gratulations upon their safe return.

Resolved, That although unsuccessful in their mission abroad, we will welcome them home as the representatives of the genius and enterprise of our people.

Resolved, That a committee of nine be appointed by the chair to make the necessary arrangements for their proper reception.

The Chairman appointed the following named gentlemen to act as the Committee of Reception, provided for in the resolution, viz: John Paisley, Alexander Murray, George W. Leonard, John J. Torrey, J. G. Weldon, John M'Elroy, John S. Cosgrave, Henry Beaumont and Henry Kane.

Mr. M'Clure offered the following:

Resolved, That the Reception Committee be requested also to serve as a Finance Committee.

The resolution was adopted, after which the meeting adjourned to meet in the same place on Saturday evening, at half past seven o'clock.

Important Revenue Decision.

A prominent merchant of this city has just received from the Office of Internal Revenue the following very important letter of decision:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF INTERNAL REVENUE,
WASHINGTON, July 10, 1866.

Sir:—Your letter of the 2d ult. is received. I reply that when an individual sinks wells for the purpose of obtaining oil and incurs loss thereby, such loss may be deducted from his income derived from business during the year in which said loss occurred.

But losses incurred by oil stock companies in sinking such wells, cannot be deducted from the income of the individual stockholder. Such losses must be considered as affecting the value of the general stock, depreciating the same, and the tax-payer cannot deduct from income on account of the mere depreciation of stocks.

Very respectfully,
E. A. ROLLINS, Commissioner.

Dissolved.

In the Court of Common Pleas, yesterday forenoon, Judge Stowe delivered an opinion dissolving an injunction in the case of Oakland Passenger Railway vs. T. J. Keenan, Esq., and John H. Stewart, Sheriff. In 1864, Henry Fieldings, Jr., obtained a judgment against the Railway Company, to satisfy which a tract of land, containing about eight acres, situated in Peebles township, was seized and sold at Sheriff sale, T. J. Keenan, Esq., becoming the purchaser. After the purchase money had been paid and the deed delivered, the Company prepared to give possession, when a writ was procured directing the Sheriff to dispossess them. The Railway Company obtained a preliminary injunction to restrain the Sheriff from executing the writ, and a motion to dissolve it was argued on Tuesday. Judge Stowe yesterday dissolved the injunction.

Changes in the Postoffice Laws.

We recently published the leading provisions of the amended money order system. The following will show other important changes from the old law in regard to postage fees and the transmission of letters in certain cases:

No postage is to be charged on letters forwarded from one office to another, or on dead letters returned to the writers.

Request letters, described in the regulations of 1866, section 394 to 399, are also to be restored to the writers free of charge.

Section 187 of the Postoffice regulations, published in 1866, is so far modified as to allow Postmasters to receive orders for envelopes bearing a business card, and request to return to a particular address, in quantities of five hundred and upward, instead of one thousand, as heretofore.

Escaped.—John George was arrested and brought before Alderman Morrow, yesterday, charged with obtaining board from Alexander McDonald by false and fraudulent representations. George entered bail for a further hearing yesterday afternoon, and was released, but when the hour for the hearing arrived it was ascertained that he had left the city on the noon train for Chicago.

John Schiviey subsequently appeared before the same magistrate and entered suit against the same defendant, for the larceny of two dollars. A warrant was issued for the arrest of George, but ere this he is doubtless beyond any imminent danger of capture.

Sudden Death of an Esteemed Citizen.—We are pained to announce the death, from disease of the heart, of an esteemed fellow citizen, John H. Myers, Esq., which took place yesterday afternoon at his residence in the Diamond. He had been in the enjoyment of his usual health up till within a few hours of his death. The deceased was a kind hearted friend, a genial companion, and an honorable, high minded gentleman. His death has proved a source of grief to a large circle of friends and acquaintances. His funeral will take place this afternoon at four o'clock from his residence, No. 34 Diamond.

Charge Against a Car Conductor.—Jas. Williams appeared before Alderman Taylor, yesterday, and preferred a charge of malicious mischief against John Wilson, the conductor of car No. 32, of the Citizens Passenger Railway. The deponent avers that Wilson, with a malicious intent to destroy the wagon of the deponent, forced it into collision with car No. 32, by which the said wagon was damaged to the amount of $10, and furthermore, that Wilson threatened to run over the head of Williams if he did not immediately get out of the way. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the conductor.

Cross Suits.—James Rice was charged with assault and battery, before Alderman Morrow, yesterday, on oath of Anthony Paffenbach. The offense consisted in Rice whipping a son of the deponent, who, it was alleged, was in the habit of beating a little son of the accused on all occasions. On being arrested, Rice entered suit against Paffenbach's son Edward for a like offense. Both parties gave bail for their appearance at Court.

A Daring Attempt to Break Jail.

On last Saturday night a bold attempt to break out of jail occurred in Beaver. The particulars are substantially these: At about half past ten o'clock on Saturday night, Sheriff Ledlie, who had not yet retired to bed, thought he heard a noise as if some one was digging in or about the building. Satisfying himself this was the case, he awakened up one of his subordinates, and proceeded to the rear of the cell from which the sound came. From here he could see that the cell in which a prisoner named Ferguson was confined was lit up, and that he was evidently trying to dig his way out. Hence the Sheriff procured a light, went to Ferguson's cell, and ascertained that he had almost succeeded in getting a hole in the wall large enough to permit him to pass through. On being questioned closely, he admitted that the project was set on foot solely in the interest of Lennox, of Washington county, who is at present confined there on a charge of murder. The plan was for Ferguson to release himself from his own cell by means of tools, no doubt furnished by the friends of Lennox, after which, [illegible] key of Lennox's cell (also, we presume, furnished by Lennox's friends) it was to be unlocked by Ferguson, which would bring them both into the jail hall. From the hall their purpose was to cut a hole through the wall into the pantry, from the pantry to get into the dwelling part of the building, and out through the front door. But luckily the noise they made detected them, and consequently Ferguson was at once regarded; have since been thrown around both moved to another locality, and additional safeguards of them. In the collar of Lennox's coat was found a cold chisel some six inches in length, besides another piece of steel of about the same size. Had the attempt succeeded, Ferguson would have undoubtedly escaped also, but he was evidently trying to subserve Lennox's interests more than he was his own. Ferguson in addition stated that a horse was in waiting for Lennox at Smith's Ferry, manifestly showing that the attempt to escape was preconceived and prearranged.

Malicious Mischief.

T. J. Burton made oath against Thomas Carroll and his wife Anna, yesterday, before Alderman Humbert, for malicious mischief. It appears that Mr. Burton is the proprietor of a couple of acres of ground in Pitt township, which he has surrounded by a high fence. During one of the heavy rains of last week, the roof of Carroll's house, which is but a short distance from the prosecutor's place, began to leak very badly, and having no lumber of their own, Carroll and his wife took a portion of Mr. Burton's fence with which to patch it, without asking the permission of Mr. B. to do so. Of course, the gentleman on hearing of the injury done his premises grew very indignant, and on the impulse of the moment entered suit against Carroll and his wife, as stated. At the hearing, the gentleman relented and withdrew the charge, on condition that the defendants repair the fence within twenty-four hours, which they eagerly promised to do, and were discharged.

An Antidote for a Scolding Wife.

William Hoffman was charged before Alderman Taylor, yesterday, with surety of the peace, on oath of Mary Hoffman, his wife. The prosecutrix states that William absents himself from home during the greater part of every evening, and frequently returns intoxicated. On such occasions he shows his knowledge of fistiana by beating her over the head with his clenched fist. Fearing he may do her bodily injury, she requested that he be held to bail to keep the peace. William did not attempt to deny the allegations of his wife, and rested his defence on the ground that he is forced to beat her to keep her from scolding. The defense was deemed insufficient by the magistrate, and William was forced to find bail in the sum of $300 to keep the peace toward all mankind, and his better half in particular. We must confess that William's antidote for a scolding wife has at least one merit, that of originality.

Painful Accident.

William Shulty, a boy about fifteen years of age, had a most remarkable escape from instant death on Saturday last, at Millersville, Dauphin county. While in the fourth story of the Normal School building, he got upon a table directly in front of a window, the entire sash of which had been removed during the hot weather, and whilst attempting to reach some shelves over the window, lost his balance and plunged out headlong. He struck the ground with fearful violence, fortunately falling on his hands and knees. The right arm was broken at the wrist. Both bones of the left were broken midway between the wrist and elbow, the fractured bones protruding through the flesh and penetrating the ground. The left thigh was broken midway between the knee and body, the bone also being driven directly through the flesh and into the ground, so violent was the concussion. The height of the window is some forty feet.

Departed for Europe.—Our highly esteemed fellow citizen, D. O'Neil, Esq., editor and associate proprietor of the Dispatch, departed yesterday upon his sorrowful journey to Europe. He took with him for interment in the land of her birth, the remains of his late beloved wife. Previous to returning, Mr. O'Neil will make an extended tour through Europe, and furnish the Dispatch his pencilings by the wayside. He was accompanied by the esteemed wife and daughter of J. Heron Foster, Esq., senior editor of the Dispatch. We wish the entire party a pleasant journey through foreign lands, and a safe return.

Stabbing Affray.—We learn that on Saturday evening last a young man named Johnson and another named Westlake, both of whom reside in the village of Independence, Washington county, got into a fight, in the course of which the latter was so severely stabbed by the former that his recovery is considered doubtful. We have heard no particulars, but are informed that Westlake received one or more cuts in the abdomen, of such an extent that his bowels protruded. It is said that Johnson has left for parts unknown.

Laying the Pipe.—In pursuance of an arrangement between the city and county authorities, a four inch water pipe is now being put down from the upper reservoir or basin to the county jail, via Wylie street, for the purpose of securing an adequate supply of water, the want of which has been seriously felt for a considerable time past. The work is progressing quite rapidly and will soon be completed.

Free Passes on Railroads.—In conforming to the resolutions of the railway conventions held in New York in May and June last, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company decline to issue free passes that can in any way be deemed a violation of those resolutions, and have decided to give no local passes except for purely charitable purposes, "unless the interests of the company demand their issue."

Suicide.—Louis R. Dunham, an old citizen of Brownsville, committed suicide on Tuesday morning, the 17th inst., by cutting his throat. He lingered on in great agony till Monday morning, the 23d inst., when death came to his relief. Mr. D. had been an invalid and great sufferer for years, and depression of mind, occasioned by his sufferings, is supposed to have been the cause of the suicide.

Boys Charged With Larceny.—Four boys named Samuel Fisher, Barney Fritz, Charles Deitrich and Luke Fisher, were before Alderman Taylor, yesterday, charged with the larceny of a lot of scrap iron valued at eight dollars, from the premises of Samuel Bridge, in the Fifth ward. They each gave bail in the sum of five hundred dollars for a further hearing to-day.

Base Ball in Allegheny.—An interesting and hotly contested game of base ball took place on the West Common, Allegheny, on Tuesday, between the Atlantic Club, of Allegheny, and the Mutual, of East Liberty, resulting in the success of the Atlantics. The Eagle and Triumph clubs played a game on the same day, at the same place, the Eagles winning.

Walls Removed.—The unsightly and constantly crumbling walls in front of the frame buildings on Second street, in the Eighth ward, have been removed, and where for many years no sidewalk existed, there is now the semblance of one, adding considerably to the appearance of the locality and the convenience of the residents.

Pennsylvania Railroad Appointment.—Col. R. E. Ricker, heretofore General Superintendent of the Terre Haute and Indianapolis Railroad, has been appointed to the position of Superintendent of Motive Power and Machinery of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and will enter upon his duties in a few days.

Death of Osmond Foster.—The death of Osmond Foster, son of Joseph C. Foster, formerly Manager of the Pittsburgh Theater, is announced as having occurred in Chicago on the 17th inst. Full particulars concerning his decease can be obtained by addressing Harry Hudson, McVicker's Theatre, Chicago.

The Sewickley Murder.—Nothing further concerning the murder of the colored girl at Sewickley has been developed. The citizens of the vicinity have offered a reward of five hundred dollars for the arrest and conviction of the murderers. The Coroner's jury will meet on Saturday.

Saddle Stolen.—On Tuesday a saddle belonging to Dr. Kroesen, residing on Ohio street, was stolen from the Allegheny Weigh House, during the absence of the weighmaster. The door was locked, and the thief must have entered through a window.

Larceny.—Mary Anderson was before Alderman Humbert yesterday charged with the larceny of a carpet-sack from the boarding house of Earnest Meyers, in the Fourth ward. Mary was arrested and gave bail for a further hearing on Saturday.

The Judicial Conferees of Washington and Beaver counties held a second meeting in this city, this week, but came to no conclusion, those from Beaver adhering to Mr. Chamberlain, and those from Washington to Mr. Acheson.

The Republican Representative Conferees of Beaver and Washington counties have nominated for Assembly Col. M. S. Quay, of Beaver, Col. John Ewing and Capt. J. R. Day, of Washington.

Drowned.—A young lad named Amos Johnson was drowned in Steel's mill dam in Richland township, Cambria county, on Monday last. He formerly resided at Altoona with an aunt.

PERSONALITIES.

In a telegraphic dispatch sent by Gov. Brownlow to Col. Forney, announcing the ratification of the Constitutional Amendment by the Tennessee Legislature, President Johnson was characterised as "the dirty dog at the White House." Col. Forney published the dispatch in the Washington Chronicle, without suppressing or modifying the offensive allusion. He doubtless regarded the coarseness of the dispatch as the echo of the President's speech, in which he was grossly styled the "dead duck."

The New York Post calls on the Senate to punish Colonel Forney for his breach of propriety in publishing the dispatch, by dismissing him from the office of Secretary of that body. If this method of retribution is to be pursued, it would be well to commence higher, and dismiss the President himself for his offences against decency of speech.

It is not a little remarkable that the Democratic and Conservative Republican journals which have regarded the "dead duck" epithet as so elegant and apposite that they have repeated it without intermission for weeks past, with the additional vulgarity of printing Col. Forney's name with a lower case f, profess to be greatly shocked and indignant at the "dirty dog" opprobriousness. The manner in which they berate Governor Brownlow surpasses even his scurrility.

Nor must it escape observation that the journals which most tartly censure Colonel Forney for publishing Governor Brownlow's vituperation of the President, are the identical journals that applauded Minister Harvey's diatribe against Congress, which was given to the public at the instigation of the President himself.

At a recent caucus of the Republican Members of Congress considerable freedom of remark was indulged in concerning the President. The meeting was private and confidential, and hence privileged. Owing, however, to some erroneous statements by newspaper correspondents of what was actually said, putting Mr. H. J. Raymond into a false position, he procured authority to publish the proceedings in his newspaper, the New York Times. Instantly a torrent of censure was opened by the Members of Congress who had used freedom in the caucus in commenting upon the President's conduct. The journals that professed to be most scandalized by the frankness with which Congressmen in this private interview spoke of the President were precisely those that for six months have found in terms too coarse to express not simply their dislike of the Republican majority in Congress, but of individual members who by virtue of superior abilities have acted a conspicuous part in the deliberations.

A month ago Governor Morton, of Indiana, at a mass meeting held at Indianapolis, delivered a powerful review of the principles and conduct of the Democratic party. He indulged in no incrimination of individuals, but confined himself rigidly to the discussion of political doctrines and tendencies. The response was a deluge of personal defamation and abuse, from multitudinous democratic organs, which has not been equaled in this country for a quarter of a century.

These facts and many others of like character, suggest an inquiry into the rightful limits of public dissension in political matters.

The avowals and actions of political parties are always legitimate subjects of oral or printed discussion. Indeed, free government can exist, in a healthy condition, on no other basis. Nor has any individual a right to be offended because his fellows put a different estimate on any dogmas and measures from that which he puts upon them. In such discussions those most commonly resort to personal abuse whose stock of facts and arguments soonest become exhausted.

So, too, the competency and integrity of public men, in their official relations, are properly subject to criticism, as long as the discussion is confined to those matters which concern the public, neither the individuals themselves nor their friends have a right to complain. Points may be pressed unduly; defects may be magnified; but these are incidental inconveniences or infelicities which must be borne.

Public men, in common with other men, are like the image in the vision, part gold and part clay. Some of the most useful of them, in all the generations, have had personal blemishes. Probably this will be so until the winding up of sublunary affairs. Few, in any party, are so perfect, but under the magnifying glasses of jealousy or revenge, they can be set in an uncomfortable light. And it has always been observed that they most commonly resort to personal vilification who are most open to response of the same sort.

There is a sense of justice running all through community touching this subject. No public man of any value has ever been put down by assaults upon his personal character. Indeed, the more furious and indiscriminate such attacks are, the less injury they do a person. Neither President Johnson nor Colonel Forney; neither Mr. Stevens nor Mr. Greeley; nor anybody else who has the root of a substantial matter in him, has been put down, or will be put down, by such means. It has often been remarked that Mr. Horatio Seymour was made Governor of New York by the constant assaults of Bennett's Herald upon him. Whether or not that gentleman owed his elevation to the cause indicated, every person of observation can pick out men in his own Commonwealth who have been abused not only into notoriety, but into influence and power. This is the way masses take to be revenged upon common defamers.

However, much remains to be developed on this topic of the intrusion of personalities into public discussions, much occasion for encouragement exists. The tone of public journals and of public men, low as it sometimes is, on the whole is higher and purer than at any former period. There is no such pervading grossness now as in the days of Mr. Washington and Mr. Jefferson. The improvement, slow as it may be accounted, is steady. Nor is the change only in those who participate actively in public discussions. It runs through all ranks. That sort of strong writing which consists in measuring the depth to which it is possible for a writer to descend, no longer finds favor with intelligent people. On the contrary, the higher the tone maintained in public discussion, whether on the platform or in the press, the larger is the measure of appreciation accorded by those whose commendation is worth having.

POLITICAL DEVELOPMENT.

There are two, and but two, philosophies of government existing in all ages and nations—the conservative and the radical. One finds its expression in standing still, the other in making progress. The New York World shows which of these it follows when it says:

> "It is because President Johnson is administering this Government in the spirit of those who framed it, and according to the traditions of those who were the most wise and honored among his predecessors, that a large patriotism, looking before and after, and superior to the tides of party strife, may to-day find most cause to be comforted."

The men who set up the government of the United States were not conservatives, but radicals. If they had been conservatives they would have resisted all changes in the British Constitution, and contended for government "according to the traditions of those who were most wise and honored among their predecessors;" that is, they would have held fast to federal institutions. They did no such thing. They apprehended the fact that a government to be useful, or even tolerable, was not to be adapted to a former age, but to the existing one. Civil society sweeps on like the current of the Mississippi or the Amazon. Every age presents a new aspect. Old ideas and habits fall into decay. New ones arise. That government which reflects only or mainly the past, is unsuited to the present, and becomes irksome. That government is best which adapts itself with greatest facility to inevitable changes. Hence, the framers of the American Constitution engrafted upon it the power of amendment, and even set an example of modifying it as experience and necessity might suggest.

It is noticeable, moreover, that an appeal is seldom or ever taken from the present to the past, except in support of some hoary abuse which the world has grown ashamed of. Then we hear, in eloquent strains, how great and grand the fathers were. It almost makes sensible people sorry there were any fathers, to have them most constantly quoted and extolled for what was bad in them, rather than what was good in them; for those things in which, through weakness, they followed the failings of their age, rather than for those things in which, through greatness, they broke away from their age, and helped the progress of mankind.

The Presidents of Insurance companies recently held a meeting in New York for the purpose of raising the rates of insurance and preventing incendiarism. Two things may be considered by the outside world. 1. So long as leading companies readily divide, one year with another, thirty per cent. or more, there does not seem to be any occasion for raising rates unless the object is to help along companies that are less efficiently managed. 2. How far the system of insurance furnishes the incentive to the crime of incendiarism. So much is manifest that a large proportion of fires are set for the express purpose of recovering the insurance money; in other words, of making sale at high rates of property consumed. It is at least an open question if the total losses by fire would not be lessened one-half by abolishing insurance companies altogether. What tendency putting up the rates for policies will have to check incendiarism is not apparent; but nothing less can be expected than that those who insure should pay enough to cover all losses and pay a reasonable profit to those who run the insurance offices and agencies.

* * *

Some of the Southern journals show that while "they like the treason, they despise the traitor." The Atlanta New Era endorses the Philadelphia Convention, but adds, in italics, that it is "not to organize a party for President Johnson."

* * *

The New York Times certainly understands the pretense that the President, "standing in and with the Union party," means to fight it out on that line, is "played out." It only "discredits" itself by such averments.

Mr. Seymour has been investigating the mineral resources of the island for several years. The sale includes the whole island except about eighty acres.

—Moses Craig, a few days since, was married in Albany, having come there recently from Buffalo, where he had another wife living. The latter heard of it, and having a prior claim, went to Albany and had him arrested. He excused himself by saying that he heard his wife had been killed by lightning; but his wife says she has heard he had four wives living when he married her.

Successful Treatment of Hydrophobia.

The Wolverhampton, England, Chronicle says:

A dog which showed signs of rabies recently escaped from Mr. Higgs, of Trescott, communicating the disorder to other dogs and doing mischief. About a month ago a servant girl in Mr. Higgs' service was tying up the dog, when the animal bit her on the right thumb. She experienced no serious results until Tuesday week, when her arm, thumb and chest became considerably swollen, accompanied with great heat, pain, redness, stiffness, and numbness, the arm being so stiff that she was almost unable to move it. Mr. Higgs sent for Mr. Pope, surgeon of this town, who saw the girl on Thursday and found her evidently suffering from hydrophobia, the result of the bite of the dog. On Friday night she became very ill, biting and tearing at almost everything near her, and suffering much from convulsions. She repeatedly declared that she heard the dog growling at her. Indeed, she displayed all the symptoms of this dreaded disease. As surgical writers on the subject do not lay down any specific mode of treatment in cases of this kind, Mr. Pope determined to cause profuse salivation in the patient, with the view of neutralizing the poisonous character of the saliva of the hydrophobia. This is a course of procedure not often pursued, but its beneficial effects were soon apparent. On Sunday the convulsions and the spasms, from which the poor girl also suffered, had ceased, and there now appears to be every prospect of her ultimate recovery.

Premiers and Parliaments in England.

Since the passage of the Reform Act in 1832, nine Parliaments have been held in England. In one instance only, that of Lord Melbourne, has a Parliament been dissolved by the Minister under whose auspices it was elected. The first reformed Parliament was called January 23, 1833, by Earl Grey, and dissolved December 30, 1834, by Sir Robert Peel. Its successor was called February 9, 1835, by Sir Robert Peel, and dissolved July 16, 1837, by Lord Melbourne. The next was called November 15, 1837, by Lord Melbourne, and by that Minister dissolved June 23, 1841. The succeeding Parliament was called August 18, 1841, by Lord Melbourne, and dissolved July 23, 1847, by Lord John Russell. Assembling on November 18, 1847, under the leadership of Lord John Russell, this Parliament, was dissolved by Lord Derby, July 1, 1852. Lord Derby's first Parliament was called on November 4, 1852, and dissolved March 21, 1857, by Lord Palmerston. This house, called by Lord Palmerston, April 30, 1857, was dissolved April 23, 1859, by Lord Derby. The conservative leader's second Parliament, called May 31, 1859, was dissolved July 6, 1865, by Lord Palmerston. The late premier did not live to meet his second Parliament, and it is, therefore, difficult to say whether it would have acted as the majority of its predecessors, and turned out the Minister whose policy it had been returned to support.

* * *

The following incident is told by a correspondent in Prussia:

"Did a man ever go into battle with the conviction that he should be shot? I believe not. I believe if a man were to ascertain for a certainty that in the next encounter eighty out of one hundred men would be slain, he would infallibly chalk himself down as one of the lucky twenty. During last night I traveled a number of miles with an officer 'going to the war,' and he was as unconcerned and as particular about the minutest trifles pertaining to his comfort as if he had been a young lady going from London to Brighton. He had brought with him a prettily embroidered pair of slippers which he carefully took from his bag when the train started, and then opening a bottle of eau de cologne—eau de cologne for a man going to some Borodino or Austerlitz!—he gently sprinkled it over his hands and then proceeded to wash his face in a similar manner—that is, in the manner of a cat. And he was no effeminate, lackadaisical, carpet-warrior with a white mustache and a lisp, but a big, jolly, burley fellow, who seemed immensely proud of his gold-hilted sword."

LOSS BY THE PORTLAND FIRE,
July 4th.

The total amount covered by Ætna Policies on property destroyed or damaged is $206,854, on which salvage will be about 5 per cent. Our total loss will not vary much from $200,000; and is being promptly adjusted and paid. This sum is 5 per cent. upon the assets, a figure but slightly exceeding our Government and State taxes, paid last year, or a proportion equal to a $5,000 loss for a company of $100,000 assets.

The necessity for insurance and the value of wealthy, strong corporations, is forcibly illustrated by this fire. Several weak Insurance Companies are destroyed. Portland has a population of thirty-five thousand, was handsomely built, mostly fine brick or stone structures, protected and screened with upwards of three thousand shade trees—bounded on three sides by water—indeed, literally, almost rising from the ocean—and with a good steam fire department—yet it has $10,000,000 property consumed in a few hours—upon a holiday when its people are least occupied, from the very insignificant cause of a contemptible fire cracker.

Remember the trifling origin of fires that sweep away in a few hours the earnings of years. Consider your best interests, and give the Ætna Agent a call if you need proper Insurance security. Policies issued at fair terms.

Gardner & Hemming's Circus exhibited here to-day to a small house. At Blairsville, yesterday, while Mr. Hemming was walking the tight-rope, the rope broke, throwing him heavily against the centre-pole and cutting a frightful gash over his left temple. At the same place, while Mr. Williams was in the cage with the tigers, one of them (a large African), which he had whipped on his first entrance, watched its chance and sprang upon him, and knocked him down with one spat from his ponderous claws. Mr. W. was immediately drawn from the cage. His face was badly scratched, but he was not seriously injured.

John Fahnestock, the injured fireman, was taken to Pittsburgh yesterday morning, much better.

The mail train from the east due here at 12:17 A. M., was behind time this morning. Several passengers were here waiting to go on it, and amongst them a gentleman and his lady who reside at Greensburg. The operator had no report of the train. In less than 30 minutes after the train was due, viz: at 12:45, Mr. Beckwith, the landlord, absolutely turned the passengers out of doors and closed up the house for the night, without knowing how long the train was behind. It should be borne in mind that this house is the only station house here. The ticket office is in the bar-room. Now the question is, is this a regular station house of the company, or if so, has the landlord the right to shut it up and turn out the passengers? And if it is not, I think the company should put up a place of shelter for its patrons. I think this would be advisable at all events, as ladies do not like to go into a rum-shop to get their tickets.

In all my reports, I invariably state facts and I never censure without good cause. I saw this occurrence myself, and felt at the time that it was an outrage on the lady. If there had been no one there but men, I would have passed it unnoticed. ANAWAN.

Applications for Pardon—Governor Curtin's Ultimatum.

At no time, perhaps, in the history of Allegheny county has the Governor of the State been so much importuned to exercise the pardoning power than recently, in some instances being appealed to in advance of the pronouncing of judgment by the Court upon verdicts. This has resulted from a more rigid appliance of the liquor license law than was the custom in times past, brought about mainly through the influence of temperance leagues, which have sprung into existence within a couple of years. Until within a comparatively short time it was not the practice of the court to enforce the law to the fullest extent, by making imprisonment a portion of the sentence in cases of second conviction, and whilst a great number of those who have violated the law would be content to pay a fine, amounting to hundreds of dollars, the imprisonment is by no means a comfortable reflection. And there is no getting out of it, under the present regime, for, in every instance where the record justifies it, the indictment recites the fact of second conviction, and imprisonment under the law necessarily follows as part of the sentence. At the last term of the Quarter Sessions a considerable number of retail liquor dealers were so indicted, and some have been sentenced, but the largest proportion have failed to appear, and seem to be dodging the process of the Court. Those who have answered, and who are now in jail, sentenced for terms varying from fifteen to sixty days, are petitioning the Governor for pardon—expressing their willingness to pay their fines if relieved from incarceration. Under the present rigid rules of the prison, to be confined therein is not so pleasant as formerly, when the larger liberty was allowed. We remember a time when the Superintendent of the prison realized handsomely in boarding prisoners of a certain class, making them almost as comfortable as if they were at their own homes. But things have changed—the law is more rigidly enforced and the Inspectors of the Prison have arranged for its conduct on a scale calculated to make prisoners have a keen appreciation of their confinement.

We understand that the Governor has refused to grant pardons, unless recommended by one or more of the Judges of the Criminal Court. His Excellency remarked to a pardon solicitor, the other day, that the press of Allegheny county, more than any in the State, had taken him to account for his (as alleged) too free exercise of the pardoning power, and hence his conclusion to grant none unless the petitions were strengthened with the recommendation stated. If this course be pursued, we judge there will be few pardons granted.

Probable Murder.

A few days since an affair occurred in the village of Upper Middleton, Fayette Co., near Brownsville, which will probably result in the death of an old man named Jacob Allen. It appears that the latter, in company with a certain Orithinal Livingstone, had been drinking together all day, and toward evening, being somewhat under the influence of liquor, they repaired to a wood shed in the rear of a blacksmith shop, for the purpose of sleeping off the effects of their potations. A few minutes after Livingstone passed through the blacksmith shop saying, "I've laid him out," and at once made off, since which time nothing has been heard of him. The man working in the blacksmith shop repaired to the woodhouse where he found Allen lying bleeding profusely from a wound over the left ear and eye. Medical aid was summoned and a large piece of the skull was removed. The wound or wounds appear to have been made with a mallet, which was found lying near the prostrate form of Allen. The blacksmith states that he heard the sound of a dull, heavy "thug" and immediately afterwards Livingstone passed through his shop uttering the expression quoted above. The physicians pronounced Allen's case hopeless. There was considerable excitement in the community in relation to the affair, both parties being well known farmers, and hitherto bearing a good reputation. No cause can at present be assigned for the assault upon Allen by Livingstone. A warrant was issued for the arrest of Livingstone, but up to latest advices no clue to his whereabouts had been ascertained.

Meeting of the Sanitary Committee.

The Sanitary Committee held a meeting on Tuesday evening in the Chamber of the Select Council, in the city building. Present, Messrs. Brown, Coursin, Gallaher, Morrow, Normine, Herdman, Lowe, Wilson, Simpson and Torley. After an animated discussion it was moved and carried that the Sanitary Committee appropriate to the use of the Board of Health the sum of $1,000, to be used by them for Sanitary purposes.

Dr. Gallaher offered the following:

Resolved, That a committee of two be appointed to confer with the Board of Health, whose duty shall be to inquire into the monetary wants of the Board and report them to the original committee appointed by Councils.

After a slight debate the resolution was adopted, and Messrs. Gallaher and Morrow appointed to serve on the committee.

On motion adjourned.

Universal Exhibition of 1867.

MESSRS. EDITORS: On April 10th last, a complete list of articles offered for exhibition at the Universal Exhibition of 1867, was published in the New York Tribune, and the general impression is that no more applications for space can be made or allowed. Owing to the action of Congress on the 15th of March, more room has been made available, and a further quantity of articles can be admitted. At my request the United States Agency for the Universal Exhibition have sent me back applications, with the assurance that important articles will be still received. I keep these blanks, and any information on the subject is at the service of any of our citizens desiring to exhibit. Yours respectfully,

H. P. GENGEMBRE.

Threw Beer on Him.—John Cummins was before Mayor M'Carthy, yesterday, charged with assault and battery, on oath of Christian Zwinger. The defendant alleges that Cummins came into his tavern, on Liberty street, and asked for a glass of beer, which was given him. After tasting it he told Zwinger he ought to be arrested for keeping such vile stuff. To this Zwinger replied that no one asked Cummins to drink it, whereupon the latter took the beer and threw it into Zwinger's face. The accused gave bail for a further hearing to-day.

An Improvement.—The school-house in the borough of Birmingham is undergoing thorough repair, and a very great improvement is being made to the town clock on the cupola. The face will be painted white instead of black, and the hour figures black instead of gilt or bronze, by which arrangement the time can be observed at greater distance and more easily on a misty or cloudy day.

Fined.—D. C. King was fined twenty dollars and costs by Alderman E. S. Morrow, yesterday, for maintaining a nuisance on his premises on Pennsylvania Avenue. He reluctantly handed over the "greenbacks" and was discharged. Street Commissioner Flinn was the complainant.

Wrong Name.—The foot race on West Common, on Monday evening, was between David Boreland, not Boden, and John Kersch, and was merely for amusement, no wager having been laid.

Special Caution.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has become so popular that various parties have put out articles calling them Mrs. Winslow's. Please take notice that the Mrs. Winslow of the Soothing Syrup is not connected with any other article. jy11:d&w

EARLY TELEGRAMS.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Memphis Cotton Swindle—Probable Admission of Colorado and Nebraska—Mayor Charged with Forgery—Demand for Fractional Currency—The President and Mr. Seward will Attend the Douglas Monument Inauguration—Final Adjournment of Congress on Friday.

NEW YORK, July 25.—Morning papers have the following specials from Washington:

The committee appointed to investigate the Memphis swindle will not report until the next session of Congress. Their investigations so far have disclosed a vast amount of official corruption in high places; but as the record cannot be completed before adjournment, it has been deemed best to postpone the report in order that all facts can be obtained.

It is not improbable that both Nebraska and Colorado will be admitted before the close of the session. If a vote can be reached, the Colorado veto will be overridden, as many of those who opposed the bill when it was under discussion, and voted against it on its passage, are now convinced of the necessity for all loyal votes that can be got into the Senate to be prepared for any contingency of such reconstruction as may result from the President's policy.

It is rumored that the President will veto, on grounds of unconstitutionality, all bills granting telegraph companies the right to build lines on mail routes.

An internal revenue inspector has just returned from Danville, Va., where he went to take action against the Mayor of that city, for forging Internal Revenue stamps amounting to over two thousand dollars, upon his tobacco, recently sold in New York. He found such strong sentiment their against the Government and its officers, and the Mayor so bold and defiant, while confessing to the forging, that he came away, glad to get the Walker's note for the amount of the stamps forged.

The immense quantities of mutilated currency redeemed and destroyed has created a drouth in this class of Government circulation, and orders are pouring in daily by telegram and letter from banks all over the country, asking supplies. The Superintendent of Printing is working all his available force extra hours to keep up with the demand.

The President and Secretary Seward, it is now positively stated, will attend the Douglas Monument Inauguration, at Chicago, which takes place after the Philadelphia Convention.

The Joint Committee appointed by the recent caucus, agreed to-night to name Friday for final adjournment.

It seems to be generally understood that the Senate will to-morrow confirm Governor Randall as Postmaster General.

FROM NEW YORK.

The Cholera Abating—Distribution of the Portland Funds—Horrible Treatment of a Freedgirl in Virginia—A Woman Monster—Trial of Fenian Leaders.

NEW YORK, July 25.—The cholera has somewhat abated; only four cases were reported officially in the city yesterday, and six in Brooklyn. There are several others unofficially reported, but there is no doubt that the weather is retarding the progress of the disease. The cholera on the islands was no less severe; three deaths have occurred and a large number of troops are ill with diarrhea. The mortuary report for the week ending July 21st, shows that there were 1,362 deaths, of which number 545 were from zymotic or foul air diseases. The total mortality for the months of April, May and June of the present year was 5,509.

Four gentlemen have been appointed by the citizens an executive committee for the relief of the Portland sufferers, to visit that city and distribute funds collected in this city. The treasurer reported the amount of contributions received to be $101,749. The total amount donated in the city is $134,910.56; of which $5,526 was collected in Catholic churches and donated by Catholic pastors last Sunday.

Judge McCann, sitting in the Chambers of the Superior Court, took occasion yesterday, when a liquor injunction case was called up, to give an opinion adverse to the constitutionality of the Excise Law. There are now three Judges of this district who have thus decided.

A voluminous report has been made by the Commission to investigate the cruelties perpetrated by Mrs. Henry Abrahams, of King William county, Virginia, upon her servants. The report shows that on the 2d of June a freed girl named Martha Annie, aged about seventeen years, was brought to a hospital in Richmond. The surgeon states that there were upon her body seven ulcers, all the result of burns, and all produced within two or three weeks. The largest was nearly two inches in diameter. In addition to these, her entire body was almost covered with scars, some old and some covered with recent scales, some the result of burns and some the result of whipping. She had been so abused that she was scarcely able to give expression to an intelligent idea. The investigation made before the Judge Advocate of Richmond, proved that this monster, Mrs. Abrahams, whom half the lawyers of the city volunteered to defend, has been the cause of the death of four of her negro servants within the last few years.

The trial of Generals Sweeny and Speer and Col. Mehan for a breach of the neutrality laws, will take place to-day, before Judge Smalley in the United States District Court, in Windsor, Vermont.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

WEDNESDAY, July 25, 1866.

The New York stock quotations to-day, were as follows: Gold, 149⅞@149⅝; 1881s, 109⅞@109⅛; old 5-20s, 106⅛; new ditto, 104⅞@105; 10-40s, 97¾; 7-30s 104@104⅛. Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad, 84¾; Fort Wayne, 98¾; Erie, 64⅛. Western Telegraph, 53¾@54; Chicago & North Western R. R., 33¾; do preferred, 64¼.

The financial troubles in England have not yet subsided. The steamer Scotia, which arrived at New York on Monday night, with Liverpool dates to the 14th instant, reports the suspension of the Birmingham Banking Company, with liabilities computed at £2,000,000. This was one of the largest interior Banking concerns in England, and the effect of the suspension cannot but prove disastrous to many of the manufacturing establishments in that district. United States securities were firmer, 5-20s being quoted at 67¾@68.

The New York Tribune says:

The action of Congress proposing to curtail the option of holders of 7-30 notes four months is denounced in financial quarters as a small repudiation unworthy of the Treasury Department. Another portion of the same bill is equally open to censure, and that is the provision forbidding national banks to count compound interest notes as a part of their reserve required by the National Currency act. As compounds are a legal tender for their face, the Government must repeal or repudiate that part of the contract, or be beaten in enforcing the new law; for National banks will continue to hold them as a part of their reserve, and will contest the enforcement of the law.

—The New York Gold Exchange has adopted the following resolution: Resolved, That no member of this Exchange shall directly or indirectly transact business in gold publicly on the streets or sidewalks, or passages to the rooms of the Exchange, nor the Fifth Avenue Hotel. Any member violating this rule shall be suspended from the privileges of the Exchange for 30 days. This resolution shall take effect on and after Monday, July 23.

—The following comparative statement shows the average condition of the leading items of the Philadelphia Banks for the past and previous week:

	Last week.	This week.
Loans	$49,483,402	$49,002,316	Dec..	$481,189
Specie	852,773	849,770	Dec..	3,003
Legal Tenders	20,311,668	21,312,564	Inc..	1,000,896
Deposits	37,707,567	37,575,560	Dec..	132,007
Circulation	9,442,149	9,427,963	Dec..	14,183

The most marked change in the statement of averages for the last week is an increase of over a million of dollars of legal-tender notes. The banks no doubt view with some concern those features of the Senate Finance Bill that threaten to make legal tenders scarce and dear, and are acting accordingly. All the other items of the statement show a decrease, though not large in any one of them.

—The latest crop reports are far more favorable than those which prevailed earlier in the season. It is now conceded that, taking the country through, there will be a three-fourths wheat crop of a very superior quality; so much so, indeed as to make this year's yield as valuable as that of last year. The barley and oat crops will be large, and the corn, though backward, promises well. Potatoes will suffer if the warm weather continues, while the fruit crop will be only a little less than an average. Were it not for paper money, we should certainly have cheap food this year.

New York Stock and Money Market.

NEW YORK, July 25.—There is no material change to notice in money affairs, and the market remains very much in the same position as for some time past. Call loans range from 3 to 4 per cent., and prime discounts from 5½ to 6½ per cent. The gold market closed up quietly, at 149⅞@150. There is very little speculative feeling at present, and the demand is chiefly for customs. The market for exchange is dull. There is a good supply of bills on the market drawn against five-twenty bonds, but there are not many buyers, the importers generally waiting for cheaper gold. There was a little more demand for Government securities this afternoon and the market was a trifle firmer. The following were the closing prices: Coupons, 1881, 109⅞@110; 5-20s, registered 1862, 101½@105; 5-20 Coupons, 1862, 106⅝@106⅞; 5-20 Coupons, 1864, 104⅜@104⅞; 10-40s registered, 97¾@98, 10-40 Coupons, 97¾@98; August 7-30s, 105⅛@105¾; June 7-30s, 105@105⅛; July 7-30s, 105@105⅛. At the last board the market was quite strong on the railways, with a rise in Erie and Toledo. The general tendency is apparently towards higher prices. To-day the advance has been marked on Hudson River, Michigan Central and Toledo. The miscellaneous stocks this afternoon were higher on Western Union and Mariposa preferred, and steady on the balance of the list.

The following were the closing prices at 4:30 p. m.: Ohio Certificates, 27½@28; Quicksilver, 40@40½; Mariposa, 11@11½; do. preferred, 26½@27; New York Central, 103⅞@105; Erie, 65⅛@65¼; Michigan Central, 110@110½; Hudson River, 119@121; Reading, 110½@110¾; Michigan Southern, 82¾@82⅞; Illinois Central Scrip, 118¾@119; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 84½@85; Cleveland and Toledo, 111¾@112; Rock Island, 97¾@97⅞; Northwestern, 33¾@34¼; do. preferred, 64@64½; Ft. Wayne and Chicago, 98@98¼. The petroleum list was active and lower on Bennehoff Run this afternoon, but otherwise the market was dull. The mining shares were quiet and firm.

The Post's money article says: The Loan market is unchanged, the rates still favoring the borrower. Commercial paper is dull at 5@6½. The Stock market is firm, with little doing. Governments dull, but quotations of yesterday are fully sustained, except 7-30s, which are lower. Railroad shares are strong, with a speculative feeling. After the Board, New York Central was quoted at 104⅛; Erie, 64⅞; Hudson River, 119⅛; Michigan Central, 110; Michigan Southern, 82⅝. Foreign Exchange is inactive and drooping.

The Commercial's money article says the stock market shows a very decided recovery of activity. Every Railroad stock on the list was higher except the Erie, which was ¼ cent lower, but there is a marked demand for the more substantial stocks for permanent investment. New York Central advanced ¾c. closing at 104⅛. Reading was ½c higher, and Hudson River sold up to 120. Michigan Central is just now the leading card. The Stock is considered very low at its present price, considering that it is a 10 per cent stock, and the late reports of the crops on the route of the road raise expectations of very large future earnings.

Governments are weak. The dampening proposals in Senator Sherman's bill have a depressing effect upon 7-30's. Money is rather firmer, apparently from a disposition among the banks to hold their money off the market, rather than lend at four per cent. The general rate on call is five per cent., with exceptions at four per cent. Exchange nominal at yesterday's rates. Gold is in good demand for customs, but otherwise is quiet.

The Persia takes out $925,804, chiefly in bullion.

Movement of Grain.

—The receipts of flour and grain at the Lake ports for the week ending July 14, are as follows:

*No report.

The shipments from Buffalo from July 2 to the 16th, were 92,990 bushels of wheat, 2,429,775 do of corn, 568,650 do of oats, and 67,562 do of rye. From Oswego from July 6 to the 14th inst., 49,295 barrels of flour, 232,781 bushels of corn, 25,989 do of oats, and 20,383 do of rye—a total at both parts of 142,285 bushels of wheat, 2,561,556 do of corn, 594,539 do of oats, and 96,965 do of rye.

Chicago Lumber Market.

CHICAGO, July 23.—The demand for good cargoes continues brisk, but ordinary and inferior grades are slow. There is no change in values. Sales were:

25 m uppers and white flooring at $45; 50 m good common mixed at $18, pickets at 12; 30 m white wood at $21, 1 m cherry at $40, 30 m good pine at $19; 50 m lath at $4; 85 m common mixed at $16,50, 50 m scantling and joist at $17; 150 m shaved shingles at $5; 40 m lath at $4; 94 m good mill run at $20; 30 m lath at $4; 60 m one-half strips balance mixed at $19; 100 m one-third strips, balance mixed at $17,75; 120 m ½ strips, balance common mixed, at $16,25; 130 m ½ strips, balance mixed, at $19.

Chicago Cattle Market.

CHICAGO, July 24.—The fresh receipts of Beef Cattle to-day at the Union Stock Yards are 1,083 head. Entered sales, 433 head, at prices ranging from $4,50@5,50 for common Cows, $5,75@7,25 for fair stock Steers and Butchers' Cattle, and from $7,75@7,95 for good to choice shipping Steers. The market is dull and inactive for common half-fed Cattle, and is getting overstocked with that class. One or two good lots of choice Steers have changed hands at remunerative prices, and shippers would do well to take the hint we have so often given them, that it is against their own interests to send such inferior stock to market as we have seen to-day.—Journal.

Cincinnati Iron Market.

CINCINNATI, July 23.—There have been a few sales of pig iron at the quotations, and stocks being light the market rules firm. There is no change in manufactured iron or steel. We quote pig: Hot blast foundry iron at $50@52, mill iron at $40@46, Tennessee cold blast at $55@65, and car wheel iron at $65@70 per ton. Steel—American cast, 19½ cents; American cast spring steel, 11½c; imported tool steel, 26c per lb.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
WEDNESDAY, July 25, 1866.

There is no improvement to note in the general tone of the produce markets, nor are the indications at present at all favorable for such a desirable event. There is no inquiry worth speaking of for Grain, Flour and many other prominent articles, except in a retail way, and round lot operations are of rare occurrence. So far as values are concerned, there is little or no change, though the tendency seems to be downward.

GRAIN—Sale of 1 car No. 1 Toledo White Wheat at $2,40; Club may be quoted at $2,10@2,15. Sale of 1 car prime Ohio Oats, on track, at 54; 1500 bushels Iowa Oats from store at 53. No 1 Chicago may be quoted dull at 46@48 in elevator. Corn is dull and nominal at 75 to 78 on track, and in elevator. Sale of 1 car Western Rye at 90, f. o. b.; and 100 bush prime do at $1. No movement in Barley.

FLOUR—Continues rather dull and neglected though unchanged. Small sales from store at $10 to $10,50 for Spring Wheat; $11,50 for half Spring and half Winter, and $12 to $12,50 for Winter Wheat brands. Rye Flour is dull and unchanged.

MILL FEED—Steady but unchanged. Sale of 325 sacks Seconds at $1,25@1,30; and 100 sacks prime Middlings at $1,60.

PROVISIONS—Bacon firm and Hams are held at a slight advance. Quotations may be fairly given at 17 to 17½ for Shoulders; 19½ to 20 for Ribbed Sides; 23 for plain and 25½ to 26 for Sugar Cured Hams. Dried Beef is quoted at 27½@28. Lard is dull at 21½@22. No movement in Mess Pork.

BUTTER—Is steady with an improved demand and light arrivals. Packed is quoted at 23@25, and prime fresh firkin Butter at 26@28.

EGGS—Firm and in good demand, and fresh packed sell readily at 22@23.

CHEESE—Is dull and unchanged at 15@16 for Western Reserve; 16@17 for Hamburg, and 20@21 for prime New York Goshen.

POTATOES—The receipts have begun to fall off somewhat, but the supply seems to be fully up to the demand and prices are unchanged, at $2,50 to $3 per bbl.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is in brisk demand at $3, being wanted by crushers, and a round lot might probably bring a fraction more. There is little or no demand for Clover or Timothy Seeds.

OIL—Sales No. 1 Lard at $1,75@1,80.

PIG LEAD—Nominal at 11½@12.

SORGHUM—Is dull; nominal at 50 to 55.

HOMINY—Dull at 3¾@4.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
WEDNESDAY, July 25, 1866.

CRUDE—The demand for Crude continues light, on the spot as well as for future delivery, and the market is dull and depressed, though prices remain unchanged. Sales of 100 bbls, packages returned, at 12; 280 at 12¼; 180 at 12¼; and 200 at 12½. Quotations may be fairly given at 12 to 12½, bbls returned, and 17, packages included. Thus far the arrivals on the recent rise in the Allegheny river, have been very light, far below what was generally predicted, and, consequently, the supply in this market aside from that in the hands of speculators, is very much reduced, and in consequence it is hardly probable that prices will decline much until the stock is considerably increased.

REFINED—There was rather more inquiry for bonded oil to-day than yesterday, and while the market was regarded in some quarters as being a little stronger, prices have undergone no quotable change. Sales of 500 bbls for immediate delivery in Philadelphia, at 38; and 500 for September at 40. There was some inquiry for August, with offers to buy at 38½@39; and offers to sell at 39½@40. October may be quoted at 41½; November 42½; and December at 43½. We are cognizant of offers, indirectly, to buy for both November and December at 43. The truth of the matter is, there is but comparatively little oil offering, the majority of our refiners having about all the contracts they care about at present, and this, possibly, has a tendency to stiffen the market somewhat.

RESIDUUM—There is still some inquiry for Residuum, and we have small sales reported at $3,00 to $3,25 per barrel.

ARRIVALS—The following arrivals of oil were reported to-day:

Jas. Gallagher	252	Fisher & Bro.	641
Hutchinson Oil Co	47	J. M. Lippincott	101
Total			1041

RIVER NEWS.

The river is again receding slowly at this point, with about five and a half feet in the channel by the marks last evening. The Allegheny was reported falling at Oil City yesterday forenoon, with fifteen inches in the channel. The weather yesterday was clear and hot in the sun.

There have been no arrivals since our last report aside from the regular packets. The Elector and Gallatin left for Brownsville last evening, and the Fayette and Chieftan are the regular packets for this evening, leaving at 5 o'clock.

The Ida Rees may have left for Cincinnati last night, but of this we are not certain. The Mary Erwin did not get off as anticipated last evening, but she will leave for St. Louis and all intermediate ports this forenoon, and passengers and shippers should bear this fact in mind.

The Importer was advertised to leave Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Tuesday, and the W. A. Caldwell, was announced to follow on Wednesday.

The new boat building by Messrs. Vance, Armstrong & Co., of Madison, for Captains J. S. & R. E. Neal, for the Louisville and New Orleans trade, is destined to be the finest and the largest steamer on the Western waters, as well as the fastest. Her freight capacity, however, will not be equal to the Ruth's, but she is expected to carry a burden of one thousand tons, with her guards clear of the water, enabling her to make the trip to New Orleans in four days. She will have cabin accommodations for two hundred passengers, with state rooms, making her emphatically a passenger packet. The boat is to be three hundred and thirty feet in length between perpendiculars, and just wide enough to go through the new canal locks. She is to have low pressure machinery. The engines are seventy-two inches in diameter, the largest and best on the Western waters, with steam from six huge double-flued boilers. The machinery is that of the old Jacob Strader.

We clip the following items from our Cincinnati exchanges of Tuesday:

The Anna has laid up at the wharf, leaving the Dean Line without a packet, which we suppose they do not regard at the present low rates of freight to Memphis. The Company are building a new boat, and will have the Harry Dean and Minnesota in fine condition for the fall trade.

The Yorktown, from St. Louis, left for Pittsburgh last evening, eighteen sorghum machines and 200 empty barrels being the only additions to her trip received here.

The Importer, Captain John Noss, dropped down to the wharf yesterday in fine condition, and is receiving for Pittsburgh.

The Louisville Journal of Monday says:

The Indiana, Harry Dean, Armadillo and Messenger are all laying at Cumberland Bar unable to get further, as there is only three feet of water. The prospects are not good for their speedy release.

The Portland bar has come up out of the low water, and shows for itself plain and clear.

SEWING MACHINES.

WHEELER & WILSON'S LOCK STITCH SEWING MACHINES.

We would advise a man to forego a thresher and thresh wheat with a flail rather than to see a wife wear her health, vigor and life away in the everlasting "stitch, stitch, stitch," when a Sewing Machine can be obtained. The WHEELER & WILSON is an invaluable aid in every household. We have had several different kinds on trial, and after six years' service the WHEELER & WILSON has taken the precedence as the best where all kinds of sewing are to be done in a family.—American Agriculturist.

These machines have MORE IMPROVEMENTS, MAKE LESS NOISE, are MUCH MORE SPEEDY and SIMPLE in operation than any Machine in the market.

SEMPER PARATUS.
PRO BO NO PUBLICO.

Yet they say it is a heinous crime the way business is conducted. Some say it is murdering the trade. Others say it is against his own interests. We don't believe it. Let us see what the true state of affairs is. The truth is this: That there is a new establishment, neatly fitted up, at No. 87 Market street, Pittsburgh, over which W. G. MAHAFFEY presides, and in which boots and shoes are sold at prices so low as to astonish the natives. Hear me while I give you the prices of a few articles, while all other articles are sold correspondingly low. Ladies' Congress Lasting gaiters selling at $1.50; Ladies' Sewed Morocco Boots at $2.00; Men's Congress Lasting Gaiters at $1.50; Children's Slippers at 40c; Children's Morocco Shoes at 50c. A large lot of gent's prime fine calf balmorals and gaiters just received and selling exceedingly low. In addition to this he keeps any article in the boot or shoe line, and manufactures to order Ladies' Congress lasting gaiter morocco boot, ladies' and gentlemen's fancy cloth embroidered slippers. Likewise gent's first class calf boots made to order $1.50 lower than any other first class house in the city. Lasts fitted to fit the feet, which we would advise every man to have of his own. Ladies' and gent's fancy cloth slipper uppers, silk embroidered, for sale. Wherein consists the crime. If in selling low, we plead guilty, and by selling low we expect to preserve our own interests, and make quick sales and many of them. Give us a call and see for yourselves and we leave the subject with you.

DR. KEYSER'S
Pectoral Syrup
CURES CONSUMPTION

CURES
All Diseases of the Lungs

A case of five years' standing cured by DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.

PITTSBURGH, January 11, 1860.

DR. KEYSER—My wife has been afflicted with it by cough and difficulty of breathing for five or six years, which, for several years back, had gradually increased in violence. The complaint has been hereditary, and she had been treated by several physicians without any relief. In this state of her case procured some of your PECTORAL COUGH SYRUP I bought, the first time, a fifty cent bottle, which relieved her very much; I then called and got a dollar bottle, which cured her entirely, and she has now no trace of the former disease, except weakness. I would also state that I used the medicine myself to a cold and cough. The medicine cured me by taking one dose. I express my entire satisfaction with the medicine, and you are at liberty to publish this if you desire so.

WM. WILSON,
Alderman, Fifth Ward

PITTSBURGH, April 24, 1857.

READ THE TRUTH.—DR. KEYSER:—I have a daughter who has taken several medicines for a bad cough without benefit, among them Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I purchased from you a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, and before she had used half a bottle she was relieved. The second bottle cured her entirely of her cough.

JOHN DARIN,
Robinson street, Allegheny.

PITTSBURGH, December 31.

A GREAT CURE BY DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I live in Peebles township, Allegheny county. I had a cough and spitting, which commenced about the 4th of February last, and continued eight months. I employed the best physicians in the country, and my cough continued unabated until early in October. At that time I was advised to try your Pectoral Cough Syrup, which I did, and after I had taken one bottle I was entirely free from the coughing and spitting. I had despaired of ever getting well, and I think it should be known that this valuable remedy will do for others what it has done in my case.

JOHN C. LITTLE,
Witness: R. M. KERR. Peebles township.

PATTON TOWNSHIP, April 14, 1858.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Some time ago an old neighbor of mine was very ill with a bad cough, which every one supposed would end in consumption. His relatives told me that he had taken every remedy they heard of without benefit; his brother came to see him die, and all were confirmed in the belief that he could not live. I had about the third of a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, which I gave him, and it entirely cured him, to the astonishment of all. What makes the case more remarkable, is the extreme age of the person, he being about eighty years old. I have no doubt the Pectoral saved his life.

JOHN McGINNIS.

DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP IN BLAIRSVILLE.—Please send me another supply of your valuable Pectoral Syrup. Almost everybody around us has the cold, and are enquiring for "Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup." We have sold sixteen bottles the last week, and are now entirely out. Mr. A. Altar and Mr. P. Maher, both of Blairsville, Pa., used it in their families. In fact, all who use it once want it again.

Yours, respectfully,
J. S. WATTERSON & SONS
January 30, 1862.

PITTSBURGH, November 18, 1865.

DR. KEYSER—Although not an advocate of Patent Medicines, in general, it affords me pleasure indescribable to recommend your PECTORAL SYRUP. As a medicine, it is well worthy the attention of any person who may in any manner be afflicted with coughs, colds and hoarseness of any kind, and for the peculiar qualifications for removing all that disagreeable sensation attending a severe cold.

I have been, more or less, in my life, affected with the severest of colds and hoarseness. At times, my throat would become so closed as to prevent my speaking above a whisper, and by taking a few doses of the above Syrup it would relieve me entirely.

In recommending this medicine, I must unhesitatingly say that it is the best remedy I ever found purporting to cure the above, nor should any family be without this remedy for diseases so prevalent.

Yours, most respectfully,
EDWARD J. JONES,
Cashier Citizens' Deposit Bank.

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio, March 14, 1865.

I have used Dr. Keyser's Cough Syrup for a bad cough of several years standing, and can cheerfully say it is the best medicine for the same that I have ever taken.

J. W. PRICE.

COL. PRATT AND DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—DR. KEYSER—Dear Sir: Excuse the delay of my acknowledging the excellence of your Pectoral Cough Syrup sooner. I take great pleasure in saying that it is all you say it is. It knocked the noise out of my cough, and the worst one I was ever afflicted with. I have not used more than one-half of the bottle, and I can and do wish that all who are afflicted would give it as fair a trial as I have done, and they will be proud to say, "it is no quack medicine." I would not suffer another such an attack for any consideration, or at any cost. I am confident I can breathe more freely than I ever did. I shall always acknowledge a debt of gratitude for inventing so excellent a remedy. You are at liberty to use my name in this regard as you think proper.

E. F. PRATT,
Messenger Common Council, Pittsburgh, Pa.

N. B.—I am no stranger to my fellow-citizens, and all who entertain doubts can consult me personally.

ANOTHER NEW CERTIFICATE.—DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I had been troubled with a cough and cold for several weeks—so bad was that I could not sleep. I had the advice and prescriptions from three of the best physicians in the city, whom I could name, but do not do so, I finally procured a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, which cured me entirely.

(Signed) J. W. SIMONTON,
No. 246 Liberty street, Pittsburgh, Pa.
January 9th, 1866.

"STOP THAT COUGHING."—"How can I do it?" Go to Keyser's, on Wood street, and get a bottle of his Cough Pectoral, and if that don't cure you, your case must be desperate indeed." This is a specimen of the colloquy one hears every day in cold-catching periods of the year. And we can, from actual experiment, cheerfully concur in the adviser's admonition as above, for we have tried the "Pectoral," in a most stubborn case, with entire success. Near two weeks ago we went to Pittsburgh, with one of the most distressing, contrary, mulish, unsubduable coughs we ever experienced since our advent upon this mundane sphere. We coughed steadily and laboriously for one whole week, in hopes of tiring it out, but it was no go. In fact, it seemed rather to have improved by practice, and to have acquired strength, potency and distressibility by the operation. In this stage of the siege, we coughed our way to Keyser's, No. 140 Wood street, procured a fifty cent bottle of the "Pectoral," took it according to directions, and in forty-eight hours we were master of the field, the enemy having unconditionally surrendered, after a brief, but unequal conflict with so formidable an adversary as Keyser's famous Cough Pectoral.—Brownsville Clipper, Dec. 14, 1859.
